Rubert B. Calvo, bookbinder, em-ployed at The State Publishing Co., fficial printers for the State of South Carolina, living at 1010 Lumber St., Columbia, S. C., says: "I thought I had rheumatism and treated for it on "Love is the lock that linketh noble minds, Faith is the key that shuts the spring of love."

The most brilliant event of the season was the marriage of Miss Eulah E. Bowen to Mr. L. Frank Galliard, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother n last Wednesday morning at ten o'clock.

The parlor had been most artistically decorated with paims and ferns, while vases o'white chrysanthemums gleamed among the the green foliage. The color scheme of green and white was carried out in all its beauty in the decorations of the home.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Root of Antreville, in an earnest and impressive manner pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

The bridal party entered as follows: first came the bridesmaids beautifully dressed in travelling suits. Next came the groom with his best man Robert Burns of Anderson.

The last and prettlest of all was the bride leaning on the arm of her brother and j-ined the groom where they were scon united in bol. wedlock.

The bride never looked more lovely than she did on that day; being beautifully attired in a travelling suit of blue with hat and gloves to match. The pretty bay window in which the bride and groom stood, was a vertable "green house" where a profusion of pot plants iwas banked while garlands of trailing vines formed a network over their heads.

Fam in the need—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure.

If it's painful periods with women, same cause,
If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the uanatural blood pressure.

Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does, it's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

A tickling rough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babes. It calms the cough, and beals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress.
